212 MAIN STREET EAST, GRIMSBY, ONTARIO

The house at 212 Main Street East was built in 1860-67 by William Dennis Kitchen. He was the grandson of William Kitchen and Alice Beam who came to Upper Canada from New Jersey before 1790. William served on Grimsby Township Council on several occasions, including a term as overseer of roads in 1791.

By 1901 the Kitchen farm on this property produced a crop of peaches, grapes, apples, pears, plums, cherries, raspberries and strawberries. The Kitchen family owned the house continuously until 1959. The last members of the Kitchen family to own the house were Olive and Fred Kitchen, grandchildren of William Dennis Kitchen, who regularly took summer tourists into their home.

Sometime after the turn of the century, the upper storey of the house was destroyed by fire. When it was rebuilt, the three gables of the original house were replaced by the present upper storey with a hip roof.
